

Code of Conduct for Our Dancers

It's all about Attitude!

At Karilee, we are committed to making participation in calisthenics as much fun for everyone as possible. We believe that participation fosters social, emotional, personal and physical development in our team members. In return, we do have expectations of all our participants and their families. Our Code of Conduct is designed to be a reminder of these commitments and we ask if you are one of our Juniors, Inters and Seniors participants that you sign it at the beginning of each year that you are dancing with Karilee.

Dancers - my team, my sport, myself

My team - I have joined Karilee to play a team sport, to learn challenging new skills and to make new friends. I will participate whole-heartedly, and respect and treat members of my team and other clubs courteously, just the way I would like to be treated.

My Sport - I will always demonstrate good sporting behaviour, control my temper and never succumb to physical violence. I will never use offensive language, abuse equipment or deliberately provoke or foul a member of my team or another club. I will never argue with an Adjudicator, Cali-ACT or Club Official, and will go through the appropriate channels if the need arises.

Myself - I will always behave well whenever I'm representing Karilee. While wearing Karilee Club uniform/tracksuit, or while engaged in competitions with a group of other Karilee members, I will remember that younger dancers will be looking to me as a mentor and a role model and act accordingly. I will always be at training or competition on time and in the correct uniform.

Social Media Guidelines

Karilee recognises the importance for our families, participants and coaches to participate in online applications such as social networking sites, wikis, blogs, micro blogs, video and audio sharing sites, and message boards that allow people to easily publish, share, discuss and communicate ideas and information. It is important, however, to acknowledge the public and potentially permanent nature of these online interactions, and recognise that the indirect form and anonymity of online communication may sometimes lead to inappropriate acts of harassment, including cyber bullying. The following guidelines have been provided to support Karilee members using social media.

Think About Yourself and Your Friends...

- Consider what you say before you say it - it may be on the web for a long time and could reach a very large audience
- Be polite, respectful and use appropriate language
- Take full responsibility for the effect that your actions and words may have on others
- Do not post information about yourself or another member of the Karilee community that is private or personal - this includes passwords, phone numbers and addresses
- Do not upload any images or films of yourself or other Karilee members on public websites unless you have written permission
- Do not forward on information, pictures, films or web links that contains inappropriate or hurtful material about members of the Karilee community

Think About Karilee...

- Use extreme care when posting information online that identifies yourself as a Karilee person; being mindful to not post any information that reflects adversely on Karilee or any members of the Karilee community
- Sending or posting information that could damage Karilee's image or reputation is prohibited and any breach of this will result in appropriate consequences.

Think About our Society...

- Be mindful of the type of fan-pages, groups and networks you sign up to. You should not sign up to gossip/fan pages that are hateful, racist, obscene, hurtful or contain material that is inappropriate
- Be aware of the legal, social and civic implications of your online behaviour.
